BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

Bay St. Louis police officer Sgt. Steven Robin and Officer Branden Estorffe will be laid to rest today, Wednesday, after a public ceremony at the Bay Community Center.

“The Bay St. Louis Police Department, as an agency in mourning, sadly reports the death of Sergeant Steven Robin and Officer Branden Estorffe, both killed in the line of duty during the morning of December 14, 2022,” Chief Toby Schwartz said in a press release last Wednesday. “This tragic loss is a sad day for the Bay St. Louis Community and law enforcement.”

Robin, 34, and Estorffe, 23, were shot and killed Wednesday after responding to a call for service at Motel 6 in Bay St. Louis.

At 3:38 a.m., Officer Branden Estorffe arrived, and a minute later Sergeant Steven Robin also arrived on scene at the Motel 6.”

According to the release, “Officers spent approximately 40 minutes interacting with Amy Anderson and her (young daughter). Anderson advised the officers that she was in fear for her life and that she was being followed by a white pick-up truck.

“The interactions with Anderson and her minor child occurred both inside and outside of their motel room, during which time the officers took statements, gathered infor-

Fallen officers honored in candlelight vigil

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

Hundreds of people gathered at Bay High’s J.D. McCullough Stadium Thursday evening in a solemn candlelight vigil to memorialize fallen policemen Sgt. Steven Robin and Officer Branden Estorffe, who lost their lives Wednesday in the line of duty.

“Today, the Bay St. Louis Police Department is broken-hearted and our spirits may be crushed,” Police Chief Toby Schwartz said, “but we who remain remember our fallen brothers, and we will not give up the fight.”

Robin, 34, and Estorffe, 23, were shot and killed Wednesday after responding to a call for service at Motel 6 in Bay St. Louis. The officers spoke for several minutes with Ocean Springs-resident Amy Anderson, who was sitting in her car in the parking lot with her young daughter, when Anderson reportedly shot both officers from inside the vehicle. Anderson also died at the scene from a gunshot wound to

Elders at Dunbar Village honor fallen officers

Dennis Mayer is a retired from the U.S. Army and 37 year career in law enforcement.

BY CASSANDRA FAYRE
 STAFF WRITER

When Dennis Mayer, who is retired from the U.S. Army and law enforcement, heard about the shooting that claimed the lives of two Bay St. Louis police officers, he knew he wanted to be a part of honoring them.

On the morning of Dec. 14, Sgt. Steven Robin and Officer Branden Estorffe were killed in the line of duty.

Mayer is a resident at Dunbar Village in Bay St. Louis and said the facility recently got a new flag to wave out front.

On Thursday morning, Mayer participated in the flag raising and then lowering it to half-mast in memory of Robin and Estorffe.

Mayer served in the Army Reserves from 1967 to 1973.

He was a law enforcement officer for 37 years, beginning with the New Orleans Police Department in 1968.

Throughout his tenure as a law enforcement officer, Mayer said he has participated in several processions for fallen officers.

He said he lost a close friend in January of 1973. The following week, Mayer said, several more officers were killed during the Howard Johnson Sniper Incident.

“Unfortunately, it’s one of the things law enforcement officers face,” he said. “We wanted to do what we could here at Dunbar to let the community know we feel the loss of the two officers.”

Mayer also worked for the Jefferson Parish Sheriff’s Office, where he worked in the fields of motorcycle instruction, community relations, coordination with translators, the DARE program, and the gang enforcement unit.

Mayer said the DARE program provided a “good” opportunity for law enforcement officers to go into the school systems and warn students of the dangers of drugs.

He also educated young people on the dangers of joining gangs.

Mayer offered his advice to local law enforcement officers.

“Be very, very aware, vigilant, and careful on the streets,” he said. “It happens very quickly. The firepower out there is overwhelming to the officers directly involved with the case.”

During his tenure in St. Tammany Parish, Mayer said, something his sergeant said always impressed him.

“We want you to go home to your family, the same way you came in today,” Mayer said.

Hancock County may not enjoy a white Christmas this year, but the weather forecast indicates it will certainly be a cold one, with an “arctic airmass” that’s due to be here by Thursday. The seven-day forecast shows that temperatures will plunge into the low 20s Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with a low of 32 degrees and high of 44 degrees on Sunday. The Hancock County Emergency Management Agency is urging all Hancock County residents to prepare for the extreme cold weather beginning Thursday night, Dec. 22, through Monday morning, Dec. 26, and has issued the following recommendations:
Dress warm if you must go out in this extreme cold weather

Insulate all unprotected pipes
Winterize your homes
Keep Fire Extinguishers on hand
Protect your pets and plants
Winterize your vehicle.
In addition, the Hancock County Emergency Management Agency in coordination with the Hancock County Board of Supervisors will open a Cold Weather Shelter, Thursday through Monday. The shelter will be open at 6 p.m., Thursday and is located at the Emergency Operations Center Building at 18333 Hwy. 603 Kiln. If someone needs a ride to the shelter, contact the Hancock County Emergency Management Office at 228-255-0942 or the Hancock County Central Dispatch at 228-255-9191 for assistance.

West Pearl

U.S. 90 bridges

SEA COAST ECHO

The Louisiana Department of Transportation and Development announces an update on the West Pearl River Bridge in St. Tammany Parish.
The West Pearl Bridge on U.S. 90 was closed on Tuesday, May 24, 2022, after inspectors found that the deterioration of the steel truss had reached a point where it was no longer safe for the traveling public. At this time, the bridge was closed indefinitely.

Following the closure of the West Pearl, DOTD closed three additional bridges along this route, as they also need to be replaced. While the West Pearl is the most notable bridge along the stretch, all four bridges within Louisiana must be replaced before the corridor can be re-opened.
Like the West Pearl, all of the bridges on this part of the route are more than 90 years old. We estimate letting this project in the second quarter of 2025, dependent on the availability of funding and public input on the proposed alternatives. Assuming funding is available, we anticipate a three year construction duration.

Like motorists and commuters, we want this route to reopen, but safety is our main focus and priority.

DOTD also understands some travelers use this corridor as a hurricane evacuation route. Should a storm approach, Louisiana has several major north/south routes that will allow traffic to travel north from the coast. Drivers are strongly encouraged to utilize a north/south route because east/west routes usually experience major traffic congestion during an evacuation. Louisiana residents are encouraged to get a game plan and to know what route they will take should evacuating be necessary. As always, the key is to plan ahead and evacuate before it is too late.
Motorists can access the latest updates on real-time traffic and road conditions using the 511 Traveler Information System by visiting the 511 Traveler Information website at www.511la.org or by downloading the 511 app. We also encourage the public to sign up for MyDOTD alerts. MyDOTD is a great way to stay up-to-date on local projects, lane and road statuses, and other DOTD activity.

Shifting priorities

Each year, the Echo sends out blank Dear Santa forms to students at local schools.

I get the task of sorting through them and I am always looking for the gems of the bunch.

This year, we received several entries from elementary students at Holy Trinity Catholic School.

One of the questions posed is “I have been very _____ this year.”

The majority of them say that they have been “good” this year, but some are quite honest with their responses.

Some students this year described themselves as “mild,” “a little bad,” and “good, a little bad, but will try to do better.”

They also described some of the nice things they did this year, which included taking care of siblings, completing chores, and helping parents.

Students also filled out their Christmas wish list.

There were three of the entries that really stood out to me and brought tears to my eyes.

Hampton, who is 10, said he was “good” this year and was “nice” to friends and family.

Hampton’s wish list included “to have people pray for me when I go on a trip,” and “I wish for my grandpa and my cats, long time ago they died, but I just really miss them.”

Hampton’s entry got me thinking about my own grandparents who have passed away and my dear sweet cat Lulu who crossed the rainbow bridge a few years ago now. I still miss the little pitter patter of her paws all up in my business when I get ready in the mornings.

Leiah, who is also 10, has been “good” this year and “helped homeless,” and “did my chores.”

Leiah’s wish list stood out to me because she didn’t ask for much for herself. She asked for “family time,” “homeless have some money,” “monogram blanket of family,” and “stuff for my puppy.”

She sounds like a sweet kiddo who really values her family, helping others, and caring for her pets.

Finally, 9-year-old Emma said she had also been “nice” this year and shared her candy and gave money away.

Her Christmas wish list didn’t include a long list of toys and whatnot, but simply this “I do not really want anything, I want my mom to have a good man and I want a dad very badly, very, very badly.”

Hancock History: Cattle Farming

Cattle farming has been a consistently profitable sector of the agriculture economy of Hancock County over the last two hundred years. Other sectors such as timber, cotton, dairy farming, and tung oil have come and gone. In the antebellum era, more people earned a livelihood raising cattle than in any other endeavor. Livestock in Hancock County farms included cattle, hogs, and sheep. Most of the cattle farms past and present were located in the northeast part of Hancock County which is rolling hill terrain with abundant water and soil excellent for pasture. The local stockyard in the Twentieth Century was located in Dedeaux. Poss LaFrance raised cattle in Ansley, but sold his stock in the Dedeaux Stockyard. “Poss” was the nickname given to Jules LaFrance who built the LaFrance Marina in Ansley, which was “Little Possum” during childhood.

The second half of the 19th Century witnessed the emergence of the timber industry. The farmers provided sawmills trained ox to pull logs out of the forest as well as beef for food. The mules and ox used by the timbermen needed feed and pasture as well. The farmers and the timber companies were codependent, but after all the longleaf pine was cut, the Sawmill Era ended around 1930.

During the mid-Twentieth Century the dairy industry emerged and a cluster of dairy farms produced a significant volume of milk that was processed at the Crosby Creamery in Picayune. Crane Creek alone had thirteen dairy farms. Joseph Shaw, Sr. was one of the first farmers to milk cows for profit. Nevertheless, by 1977 the local farmers withdrew from dairy farming and converted back their herds to beef cattle.

The Ladner Family has historically raised cattle since Colonial days. Christian Ladner, namesake of Pass Christian, maintained a herd of cattle on Cat Island in the Eighteenth Century before he moved his permanent residence from Mobile. Chandler Ladner (1900-1979) bought forty acres in Necaise Crossing in 1920 for $1.25/acre. He brought four heiffers. Other Ladners had lived in Necaise Crossing for seventy-five years like the Hebrew Ladner Family. Today, three generations of the Chandler Ladner family operate a combined herd of 200 cows on 1,500

A Bittersweet Christmas ... Love & loss for the holidays

Somehow, it doesn’t quite feel proper to say “Merry Christmas” right now. Two brave young men who had dedicated their lives to serving and protecting this community died last week in a senseless act of violence.

Sgt. Steven Robin, age 34, and Officer Branden Estorffe, age 23, were taken from their families, friends and colleagues for reasons we may never know.

Rarely in my nearly-three decades of this job have I been forced to write about something so tragic.

I wish I had some God-given wisdom or profound words to make sense of it, but I don’t. I’m not sure it’s possible. Any time tragedy strikes and a loved one is taken from us too soon – and it’s always too soon – it seems so random, so unfair.

Because it is terribly unfair.

Steven Robin and

By Geoff Belcher
General Manager

Branden Estorffe should have both had decades in front of them to live and laugh and love, to experience life and its myriad triumphs and tragedies.

That was all taken from them. Their families should have had decades to spend with them, hold them, laugh with them, love them.

That was taken from them.

Now we must grieve for them, for their loss. For their families’ loss.

But we can still hold them in our hearts, and we can still be there for their loved ones.

I’ve rarely been so proud to be a part of this community than during the candlelight vigil held last week in Robin and Estorffe’s honor, when literally hundreds of people turned out to let these men’s families and fellow law enforcement officers know, they are not alone.

Let’s also remember that, especially during the holiday season, many other families are also grieving lost loved ones.

Sadly, if you’re lucky enough to love someone, you will inevitably someday lose them, if they don’t lose you first. Let’s love and enjoy them while we can.

We should also remember the assailant’s family in this -- while it’s may be fair to vilify her, as Chief Toby Schwartz said, they’re victims, too. If there’s any lesson to be learned from this at all, perhaps it’s that we never know how much time we’ll have on this earth, so every moment of it is precious.

We must keep the Robins and the Estorffes in our prayers, but let’s also share the love in our hearts with the important people in our own lives.

And let us remember that this holiday season won’t be merry and bright for many other families, due to death or misfortune. Let’s keep them in our hearts, as well.

I pray that if you can’t have a Merry Christmas this year, you at least find love and peace. And if you have lost someone, hopefully you can adapt and heal, until you can finally remember them with a smile, rather than a tear.

I wish you all a joyous holiday. God bless us, every one.

Usually around this time of year, children are so focused on what presents will be under the tree on Christmas morning.
Oh and I was the same way. I remember the excitement that came with flipping through the Sears, JCPenney, or Service Merchandise Christmas wish books to create my own Christmas wish list.
I wonder if during my youth I was ever inclined to think of others besides myself during the holidays.
I haven’t made a Christmas wish list in many, many years now. Of course, family members ask what I might want, but usually, I have zero ideas for them.

In today’s world, filled with over-consumption of the newest and shiniest products, more emphasis placed on things rather than people, and an overall lack of empathy, I’m glad there are youngsters out there who appear to realize what’s most important about this short time we have here on Earth.
All these items we acquire and all that money the greedy so richly desire are things we cannot take with us.
Money or shiny new trinkets cannot replace or bring our loved ones back.
If anything, we should use our resources for the greater good of everyone, not just the ultra-wealthy.

And, side note, I truly dislike people who worship billionaires and the like. Quite honestly, they wouldn’t give most of us peasants the time of day. I will never understand the worship of money.
I often feel like I’m in this small minority of people who don’t really feel all “holly jolly” anymore. I used to, but somewhere along the way I think I just got exhausted of mindlessly following the crowd.
With that being said, the holidays aren’t always a super fun time for everyone. And let’s normalize that being okay. Almost forcing people to act a certain way just because it happens to be the holidays is just not right. They have their reasons for their lack of festivity and some just may not want to act like the other clones.

I like reading about what the youth are thinking about these days. The above responses give me hope about the future and that maybe one day there will be a shift in priorities, less on money, money, money and stuff, and more about taking care of one another in meaningful ways.
Happy Holidays to those that celebrate and a bah humbug to my fellow Grinchies.

Shelby Ladner (b. 1938) is a rich source of information and describes the local history of cattle farming over the last one hundred years. He has a herd dog named “Bullet” that can move a herd of cows from one pasture of green rye grass to a forest pasture in five minutes. The cows are given four hours a day only in the rye grass pasture because they would eat all of the grass in short order if given the opportunity. Shelby’s land is divided in approximately ten separate pastures that are cultivated in different stages of grass growth or harvested for storage as bails of hay for the winter when there is no good pasture crop. Shelby used to grow corn for feed, but the feral hogs decimated his fields and corn was labor intensive. Rye is the crop now grown to provided pasture to feed the herd.

On weekends, Shelby and his son, David, and his grandson, Dustin can be found working the farm. Dustin and his wife, Bridget, have recently invested in a USDA Processing and Meat Market business called “A Cut Above.” It is located just down the Necaise Anner Road at the intersection of the Necaise Caesar Road. This slaughter house processes mostly cows, but can also process hogs, goats and sheep. This vertical integration of cattle farming offers the other cattle farmers a local plant for their livestock. “A Cut Above” does not process deer. Apparently, there are a lot of goats in Dedeaux. Goat meat and mutton are popular meats in Asian and Middle Eastern immigrant cuisine.

Cattle farming has been a principle vocation in Hancock County economic history. The Ladner, Moran, and Necaise Families have raised cattle for many years and their lands have been passed down from one generation to another. Three generations of the Chandler Ladner family tree not only herd beef cattle but now operate a processing plant and meat market.

Joy to the World

By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN

C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN.

As these words go to press we are just a few days from Christmas. This is the most popular holiday in our culture. People all over the world will be celebrating this day with family gatherings, elaborate meals, the exchange of gifts, and greetings of goodwill to people far and near. It is a beautiful day filled with joy, and with the embracing of love and generosity offered to our fellow human beings.

One of the most beloved of the songs which will be sung on Christmas day is “Joy to the World”. This hymn declares the hope which lies embedded in this glorious celebration. One of the verses contains the following lines:

He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness, and wonders of his love. The sentiment in these lines embodies the beauty and joy of this season. Truth, grace, and wondrous love are at the heart of spiritual life.

Even those who claim no particular religious affiliation, or who follow no doctrinal philosophy, often find it appropriate to embrace such ideas. It is not difficult to see that our world could be a better place if we could learn to seek truth and practice love and respect for our fellow pilgrims on the journey of life.

It is not likely that we will ever all agree on the various aspects of our shared existence on this planet. We are a diverse people. We have different perspectives. We come from different backgrounds and experiences. Life is complex, and there are often multiple ways to consider issues. These realities can hardly be denied, and they can probably not be changed. What we can do is acknowledge that diversity is not a bad thing. We are enriched by a broad spectrum of ideas.

We grow as we learn from others, even if we do not agree with them. Maybe we never will. That is where Christmas becomes relevant.

The “joy to the world” that is represented in Christmas is not that we live in a “Lock-step” ideological silo, but that we can live in a world of love and grace in the midst of our differences.

Yes, there are boundaries. It is vital that we live with respect for each other and for opinions which are foreign to our own.

As most of the world’s great religions teach us, we can love each other even if we are different. We can respect the humanity of all. We can even voice our opinions and declare our convictions with vigor. That is, in fact, what “makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness and wonders of his love”. And that is why Christmas signals JOY TO THE WORLD. It still does.

Merry Christmas!

store-bought — to either walk in the parade or line the route.

It is a walking parade, so golf carts aren’t allowed, except for Grand Marshal Stephanie Johnson, who is recovering from a recent lung transplant.

Everyone is encouraged to bring a folding chair, beverage of your choice, snack to share and a blanket.

Please, no music or pets.

The route is from Blaize Avenue over to Washington Street, then down to the picnic area on the beach. Please use caution when walking across Beach Boulevard.

You may leave your chairs and byob at the beach prior to the parade — The Arts will have board members on site. You may also want to leave your car there and walk up to Blaize Avenue.

After the parade, The Arts will serve Uncle Joe’s pizza and water. There will also be a bonfire and impromptu music — you can bring musical instruments, drums, etc.

Walkers in the parade are asked to stay in a single file line and walk on the right side of the street, with traffic.

If you have questions, please call Angelle at 228-342-4521.

This shy lady is Blaize. She needs to be an only cat, and is also not good with dogs. But, this adorable, 3 year old girl is very sweet and friendly to people. She just needs a quiet spot of her own. Meet Willa an 18 month old Australian Cattle Dog, (aka Red Heeler) mix. Although she may be shy at first introduction, she quickly warms up, and absolutely craves love and attention. Her submissive nature is likely due to lack of socialization as a puppy, but our wonderful volunteers are spending lots of time helping her gain confidence and trust. Willa will require additional training in the basics, but she is very treat motivated, which is an excellent tool in training. Willa came into the shelter as a stray, with her brother, Wally. They are housed separately at the shelter and are doing fine, making new friends and enjoying our doggie play yard. Wally is also looking for his forever home. He resembles Willa, and possesses the same wonderful qualities as she does. They are medium size, and could easily join a home with children and other pets. All that they require are love, patience and training. Please stop by to meet one or both of these cute siblings during our visiting hours, Mon-Fri 10am-3:30pm (Tues 12pm-3:30pm), or call our front desk at 228-466-4516 to schedule an appointment. Please bring your children and dog(s) along for the meet-n-greet to ensure compatibility.

A Pearlington Christmas

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

Christmas came early for nearly a hundred children and their families on Saturday, thanks to the annual Christmas gala hosted by the Pearlington Bayou Restaurant and Pearlington Rocket gas station.

Santa delivered thousands of dollars worth of toys, bicycles, clothing and other goods to local children, on behalf of Pearlington Bayou and Pearlington Rocket owner and manager Michael Mavenyengwa and hard-working staff members.

“We want to thank all the children and parents that participated in this toy give-away,” event organizer Viola Ishem said, “and we would also like to thank Santa, who helped make this a big outing for our local children.”

Ishem also thanked the host of “Secret Santas” who anonymously donated to the cause this year, as well as the Baxter family, which donated on behalf of the late Bob and Betty Baxter.

“We thank them from the bottom of our hearts,” Ishem said.

Ishem said the effort was also able to raise funds for two Pearlington families who lost their homes to fires this year.

“We try to do a lot to help our community,” Mavenyengwa said earlier this year. “We’re just trying to bring some joy in life, some positivity, some light at the end of the tunnel.”

Mavenyengwa said he’s happy to help the people of Pearlington and Hancock County whenever he can.

He said he came here from Africa in 2017, “and the people of Pearlington just adopted me.”

“We can only say how grateful we are to be able to have done what we did,” Ishem said.

Backpack Buddies

BY SANDRA BELCHER

Tuesdays are abuzz at Christ Church; on one Tuesday per month the day starts off with Octogenarians Claudia Dinwiddie and Merry Thomason traveling to Sam’s Club in Gulfport to shop for the supplies and food to fill bags that will go home with more than two dozen East Hancock Elementary students so that they will have food for each weekend during the school calendar year. The ladies deliver the supplies to the church so that later in the afternoon, after bible study, parishioners can prepare and fill the bags. During the holiday months, the food is doubled so the children will not go hungry during their vacation.

“I can’t stand for children to be hungry” said Claudia.

The Backpack Buddy program is a nationwide program that is locally administered by Christ Episcopal Church in conjunction with the First Baptist Church. The ministry was adopted by Christ Church about five years ago after the suggestion of a member of the First Baptist Church said Claudia. Claudia’s daughter Ann Madden chairs Christ Church’s ministry, so this is a family effort with the help of multi-generational parishioners.

The school provides a list to the church of the children who are deserving of the food and who have their parent’s permission to participate. Volunteers say it is not uncommon for students to share their food with their siblings.

“I love for the boys and girls to have that bag and have food for the weekend” said vestry member Merry Thomason.

Each bag contains: peanut packs, Chef Boyardee cups, Dole fruit cups, juice boxes, applesauce, veggie cups, granola/fruit crisp bars, peanut butter crackers, EZ macaroni, pretzels, and instant oatmeal.

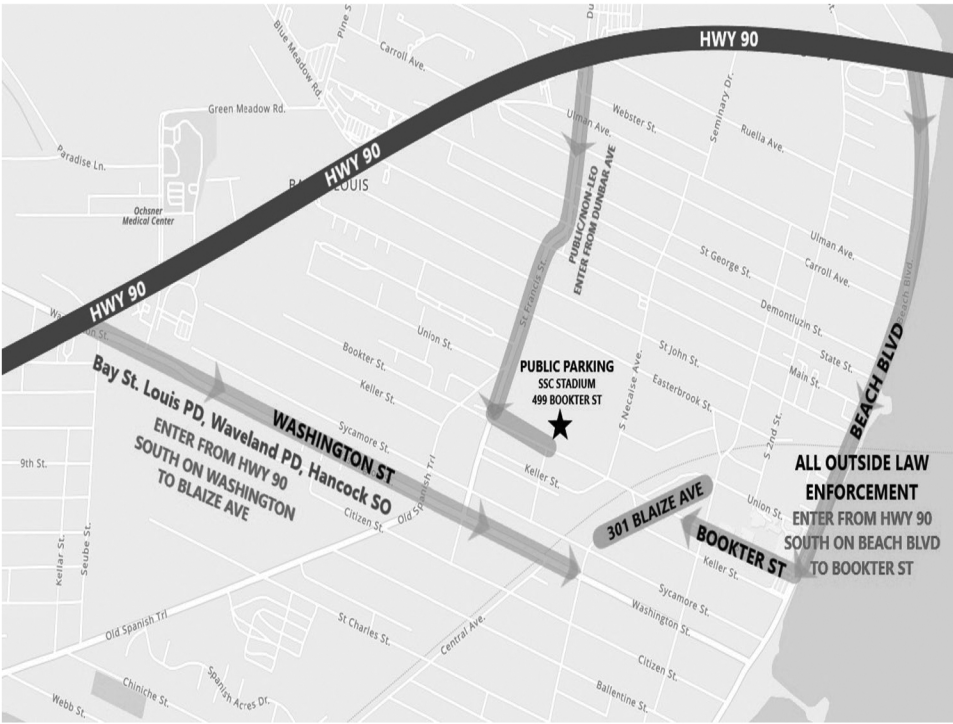

“Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me” (Matthew 25:35-36, 40).

“Kids who are hungry can’t concentrate on their school and homework and this helps remove that obstacle so that they can be set up for success” said Ann Madden.

During this time of holiday merriment, please consider offering your gifts and talents to this most worthy ministry. The Backpack Buddies program needs shoppers and delivery drivers, if you would like to volunteer or have questions about how you may help, you may contact Ann Madden at dinwiddiedesign@gmail.com.

PARKING INFORMATION

the chest. Initially, it was reported that Anderson’s wound was self-inflicted, but officials are still awaiting autopsy results.

At Thursday’s ceremony, Schwartz thanked the members of the community for their support in this difficult time.

“We appreciate your being here for us today and letting us be a part of it,” he said.

Schwartz said Robin was a 12-year law enforcement veteran, having served at the Waveland Police Department and Hancock County Sheriff’s Office before joining the Bay P.D. in 2019.

“He was promoted to sergeant because he was a true police officer and a natural leader,” Schwartz said.

Robin was a California-native, Schwartz said. When he was younger, he and his family moved around to places like Hawaii and New York before finally settling down here because the Bay-area offers what “everyone wants in life,” which is a “community that cares.”

Robin was proud of his family, and incredibly proud of his granddaughter, Schwartz said, and despite being a “tough guy, he had a soft side.”

Estorffe grew up in the law enforcement community, Schwartz said, his father Ian Estorffe having served with several agencies over the years.

He initially served at the Combat Readiness Training Center “at a very young age,” Schwartz said before joining the Bay P.D.

“He was an inspiring young officer,” Schwartz said, “just like his sergeant. Branden was destined for very great things. He was tactically sound, he was pro-active, just like his sergeant. ... It was because of them that you and we, all of us, have a safer community. They were there, every night.

“But on their patrol on the morning of Dec. 14 — it’s a time we all may wish we could forget. However, we’re going to remember it and honor them. We all know that any night, any shift, could be our last.”

All law enforcement officers “go out there to protect you, for the common good you believe in,” Schwartz said.

“We will continue to serve and protect the people of Bay St. Louis and our community.”

Schwartz quoted Matthew’s Beatitudes: “Blessed are the Peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

“Steven Robin and Branden Estorffe were peacemakers and now they’re God’s children. They may be gone, but they will never be forgotten.”

Bay High School Principal Amy Necaise also thanked the crowd for attending, and said she hoped the vigil will help the community heal.

“May this light guide us forward toward health and peace and showing our support to the men and women of the Bay St. Louis Police Department,” she said.

Main Street United Methodist Church Pastor Terry Hilliard said the light from the candles should give us all hope.

“At times like these, it feels like the darkness has won,” she said, that “no matter how much good we do in the world, no matter how much light one offers, the darkness takes over. ... (But) when the light shines in the darkness, the darkness does not overcome it.”

“I want to you look around as we stand with you in the darkness,” Hilliard said to the Bay St. Louis police and Robin and Estorffe’s families. “We can’t begin to imagine your grief, but we want you to know you’re not in the darkness by yourselves. We carry the light for you and hold you in our hearts. We want you to know that the darkness cannot and will not overcome your light.

“Our lights are shining here tonight, and we pray it will bring you hope.”

Thursday’s vigil also included performances by the Bay High School choir and band. Bay-Waveland Middle School student performed “Taps.”

Funeral services for Robin and Estorffe will be held at the Bay St. Louis Community Center on Wednesday, Dec. 21. Visitation will begin at 9:30 a.m. and services will begin at 12 noon. Upon conclusion of the services, both officers will be escorted by a law enforcement procession to Garden of Memory Cemetery in Bay St. Louis.

Robin and Estorffe made the decision to contact child protective services due to concerns for the safety of the girl, according to the release, and Anderson and the girl began loading their vehicle and advised the officers they were going to leave the Motel 6.

“At approximately 4:19 a.m., Amy Anderson, while seated in the driver’s seat of her vehicle, fired one shot killing Sergeant Robin who was standing at the driver’s side door,” the statement said. “Officer Estorffe, who was on the phone with the Mississippi Department of Child Protective Services, immediately returned to Anderson’s vehicle. As Estorffe approached the vehicle, Anderson and Estorffe exchanged rounds, resulting in fatal injuries to both individuals. The minor child did not receive any physical injuries during the incident”

“This is a very tragic situation,” said Public Safety Commissioner Sean Tindell. “It is my opinion that Officer Estorffe and Sgt. Robin’s concerns for the safety of the minor child were well-founded and based upon the mental state of Mrs. Anderson, their heroic actions very well may have saved the lives of others.” “I am heartbroken by this terrible loss of two brave law enforcement officers. I am praying for their family, friends, their fellow officers, and the entire Bay St. Louis community,” said Gov. Tate Reeves. “Every single day across Mississippi, our law enforcement members place their lives on the line in constant and repeated acts of selfless sacrifice for their community. They are a key reason that the rest of us are safely and freely able to live our lives. They are the thin blue line.”

“This is a very sad situation, and our deepest thoughts and condolences go out to the families of our lost officers,” said Bay St. Louis Mayor Mike Favre. “We ask that you pray for the City of Bay St. Louis, the Bay St. Louis Police Department and their families and that you keep them in your thoughts in the coming days and weeks during this difficult time.”

“A tragedy occurred here today in the city of Bay St. Louis as two of our finest officers’ lives were taken,” Schwartz said.

Schwartz honored Robin and Estorffe in a press conference on Thursday.

Schwartz said Robin was a 12-year veteran of law enforcement who joined the Bay P.D. in 2019, after having previously served with the Hancock County Sheriff’s Office and other agencies.

“He took his role in mentoring others quite seriously,” Schwartz said. “He knew it was his job to make great cops out of our young rookies. He did his job as supervisor very well,” offering support, advice and guidance to younger officers as needed, “always with the best intentions for his officers and for our department.

“He wanted to create a safer, better place for our officers and the city of Bay St. Louis.”

Schwartz said that Estorffe — while still very young — was a seasoned officer and beloved member of the department.

“Branden followed his father’s footsteps into service and law enforcement,” Schwartz said. “Although he was new to the profession, Branden grew up surrounded by police officers. He was an exceptional cadet. He was truly going places in law enforcement. ... He worked hard to do his best every day.

“I’d be remiss if I didn’t mention his smile. You remember that smile — it always caught your attention. ... He could lighten each one of his fellow officers’ loads with his wit and his charm.”

Schwartz asked the community to remember both men and their families, the other members of the Bay St. Louis

Police Department and law enforcement officers everywhere in their prayers.

“Law enforcement officers have a tough, tough job every day, as evidenced by what happened to these officers, Steve and Branden,” Schwartz said. “They would want you to know, their lives were not lost in vain.

“This is real tough for the law enforcement community” lose officers, “it hurts us badly. It hurts across the Mississippi Gulf Coast.”

Despite the pain, Schwartz said, “We are going to go forward and we want to honor these brave men who sacrificed their lives. I want to express my gratitude, our department’s gratitude,” to the Hancock County Sheriff’s Office, the Waveland Police Department, the Mississippi Bureau of Investigation and officers all along the Coast who have stepped up to help and support the Bay P.D.

He asked the community to pray for the fallen officers and to “pray for the peace and comfort of those still walking this earth.”

“Finally, let us pray for the children and the family of (the assailant),” Schwartz said. “They, too, are victims. They, too, need the love of the community.”

Funeral services for Robin and Estorffe will be held at the Bay St. Louis Community Center on Wednesday, Dec. 21. Visitation will begin at 9:30 a.m. and services will begin at 12 noon. Upon conclusion of the services, both officers will be escorted by a law enforcement procession to Garden of Memory Cemetery in Bay St. Louis.

CHAPMAN & CHERRY HIGHLIGHT 2022 ALL-SEA COAST ECHO FOOTBALL TEAM

STAFF WRITER

The 2022 All-Sea Coast Echo football team is highlighted by a record setting running back on offense and a relentless defensive tackle on the opposite side of the ball.

For the second straight year, the Pass Christian Pirates lead the way on the first team with ten selections followed by Saint Stanislaus with eight, Hancock with five, and Bay High with four. These are the selections for the All-Sea Coast Echo football team for the 2022 gridiron season.

OFFENSE

The offensive side of the ball was led by a devastating ground game from all four schools. However, one running back rewrote a record book and charged ahead for close to 2,000 yards.

Chandler Chapman of Saint Stanislaus was selected as the 2022 Offensive Player of the Year. Over the course of the 12-game season for SSC that saw the Rocks advance to the second round of the Class 3A state playoffs, Chapman set a new single-season rushing yardage record with 1,833 yards on 237 carries and 17 rushing touchdowns. He eclipsed the previous yardage mark of 1,637 yards set by Bennett Rimmer in 2011. Chapman also caught 4 passes for 68 yards and a touchdown. He added a fumble return for a touchdown on defense and led the team in scoring with 114 points.

Chapman commented, "Coming into my senior year, I wanted the ball in my hands to be able to make something happen for my team. I could not have accomplished anything without my offensive line blocking for me, our quarterback, Hudson Osborne, getting us in the right sets, and our coaching staff having us prepared each week. We all worked together to accomplish a goal. I believe everyone is sad to see a season come to an end, but we were able to deliver the first playoff win for the school in football in the last five years."

Chapman is receiving interest from Southwest Community College and Coahoma Community College. He added, "I very much want to play at the next level. And, I will play whatever position the staff has in mind for me as i just want to be on the field helping my team. Playing here at Saint Stanislaus has meant a lot to me. It taught me to take a chance on something and I am now able to see the bigger picture. I feel I have matured here at Saint Stanislaus. I hope people remember me as a two-way player who helped his team take the next step."

Chapman was joined on the offense by teammates OL Fulton Ascherl, QB Hudson Osborne, and K Evan Noel.

Ascherl, a 6'4" 280-lb guard, graded out at 89% for the season while opening holes for Chapman. He is receiving interest from Louisiana, Pearl River Community College, and East Mississippi Community College.

Osborne, a 5'10" 175-lb signal caller, threw for 1,480 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Noel, a 6'1" 5-star kicker who is the top-ranked kicker in the nation for the Class of 2025, handled both kicking and punting duties for SSC. He kicked-off 61 times for 3,525 yards and had 42 kicks boot-ed into the end zone for touchbacks. He also converted 35-of-38 PATs and was 8-for-13 on field goals with a long of 50 yards. Noel also punted 44 times for a 38.4 average and placed 9 punts inside the 20 yard line.

The Pirates placed OL Andrew Daniely, RB Jacquez Alexander, WR Terry Patton, and WR Anthony James on the first team.

Daniely, a 6'1" 240-lb two-year starter, graded out over 80% for the season. He will help anchor a Pirate line next year.

Alexander, a 6'2" 175-lb sophomore bruiser, rushed for 895 yards on 148 carries and had 14 touchdowns.

Patton, a 5'10" 170-lb junior receiver, caught 32 passes for 494 yards and 3 touchdowns.

James, 5'8" 165-lb junior receiver, collected 26 passes for 456 yards and 3 touchdowns.

The Hawks were represented by OL Bryce Ladner, OL Landon DeWitt, and RB Zach Gullung on the first team.

lung on the first team.

Ladner, a 6' 298-lb junior, has been a starter for the last two seasons and graded out over 80% in action.

DeWitt, a 6'1" 240-lb senior, has also started for two seasons and graded out over 85% for the year.

Gullung, a 5'9" 185-lb junior, rushed for 1,298 yards and 12 touchdowns on 202 carries.

Bay High was represented by OL Ziron Brown and RB Jaylen Antoine.

Brown, a 6'3" 285-lb mammoth, has started two years for the Tigers. He averaged 5 pancake blocks a game for Bay High and is receiving interest as a junior from the likes of Mississippi State and North Carolina State.

Antoine, a 5'11" 180-lb sophomore, rushed for 832 yards and 8 touchdowns on 185 carries. He added 14 receptions for 258 yards and 4 touchdowns and 437 kickoff return yards and two more scores.

The honorable mention selections on offense were OL Chase McLaughlin (Pass Christian), OL Ilias Rida (Saint Stanislaus), QB Xander Ladner (Bay High), WR Neil Acker (Hancock), WR Avery Harris (Bay High), and K Karston Mooney (Pass Christian).

DEFENSE

The defense was led by Defensive Player of the Year Malik Cherry of Pass Christian.

Cherry, a 6' 230-lb hard-charging lineman, was at the point of the Pirate defense throughout the season racking up 56 total tackles with 4 sacks, 9 tackles for loss, and 15 quarterback hurries.

Cherry talked about his selection, "I feel I definitely accomplished my personal goals this season despite us not succeeding in some of our team goals. I tried to control my gap on every snap and dominate the player in front of me. If I am able to dominate my area that will help our team make the play on defense that we need to get our offense the ball back."

Despite being a force to be reckoned with on the defensive line, Cherry has had little to no interest from the next level. He talked about what he brings to the field, "I very much want to play at the next level in some capacity. For those teams that are looking at me, you will get a player that will respond with 110%

BASKETBALL/SOCCER ROUNDUP

BY JOSEPH W. GEX, II
STAFF WRITER

With the impending holiday break taking place, basketball and soccer will take a brief break in the coming days to celebrate the holiday season. But, prior to the break, several teams were in action in both sports.

BASKETBALL

Bay High Tigers swept a pair of varsity games against the Pearl River Central Blue Devils last week with the Tigers winning 34-22 and the Lady Tigers beating PRC 45-20.

Bretta Hart led Bay High in place of Kelton Thompson who was out sick. Hart stated, “All the credit goes to the girls. They made my job easy relaying what they were seeing on the court. They were prepared for what Stone was doing on the court.”

Kayla Fricke led the Lady Tigers with 14 points followed by Kiara Burney with 9.

In the boys game, Avan Wilson led Bay High with 27 points and 13 rebounds followed by Da’jontae Lee with 15 and Jaden Clark with 14.

In place of Thompson, Dmitry Johnson called the shots for Bay High. He stated, “We directed every play play thus evening whether it was good or bad. We have to develop better instincts on the floor and I felt we made good headway with that tonight.”

The Tigers also beat Saint Stanislaus 43-20 in War on the Shore on Saturday. It was a tight game in the first half with Bay High enjoying a 15-11 lead at intermission before they were able to extend SSC in the second half.

Avan Wilson led Bay High with 15 points, 9 rebounds, and 3 steals followed by Xavier McPherson with 11 points. Chris Mavar led SSC with 9 points.

Bay High head coach Kelton Thompson commented, “SSC did a lot of things that favored them in the first half which led to a very tight first half of play. In the second half, we were able to extend them somewhat and get them out of what they do well which allowed us some easy baskets in transition. Once we were able to secure a small lead, we were able to do some things that favored us. If that did not happen, then it would have looked a lot like the first half.”

Saint Stanislaus head coach Daniel Grieves stated, “We had a terrific first half. Bay High made some adjustments in the second half and we were not able to answer them. We depend a lot on the post presence and it did not support us today.”

The Lady Tigers beat Long Beach in the first game if War on the Shore 37-15. Kiara Burney led Bay High with 13 points. Thompson stated, “We had great effort on the defensive end today. Kiara Burney is playing very well right now and she led the charge for us today.”

Hancock Hawks

The Hancock Hawks (10-9) lost to Forrest County AHS 52-42 and Pascagoula 44-40 before beating D’Iberville 52-47 last week.

The Lady Hawks topped Pascagoula 52-29 and D’Iberville 49-20 to remain undefeated at 15-0.

Saint Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws/ Our Lady Academy

The Rocks and the Crescents did not play during the week last week due to exams. On Friday, the Rocks fell to Bay High 43-20 on Saturday and beat Perry Central on Friday to even their Division 8-3A record at 1-1. Game details against Perry Central were not available.
